Terms and Conditions

LESSONS:

Tutors will provide 30 instrumental lessons over the academic year. This is normally arranged as 10 lessons per term.

If a tutor misses a lesson, through absence, an alternative time must be agreed and catch up lessons must be given before the end of term.

If a student misses a lesson because of absence, there will not normally be a refund and the lesson will not normally be re-arranged at another time. If, however, a student is absent because of long-term illness or unforeseen circumstances and best endeavors are made to give the tutor notice then the parents must contact the tutor and discuss arrangements for postponing lessons and refunding.

Students must not give less than half a term's paid notice for terminating lessons. This should be in writing from parents/guardians to the tutor and copied to the Head of Music. This is to allow enough time to find a replacement pupil from the waiting list. If no notice is given, half a term's fees will be payable.

Students must bring a notebook to every lesson.

ADMINISTRATION:

Payment of lessons will be directly to tutors. Tutors will invoice parents and guardians directly for each term stating the number and duration of the lessons. Invoices will be sent to parents two weeks before their child's first lesson, and payment will be required on or before their first lesson. This should be sent directly to the tutor.

FEES:

The rates for 2019/2020 are £18.50 for a 30 minute lesson.

I,(parent/guardian) have read and agree to these Terms and Conditions for instrumental teaching Thamesmead School.
